As a dealer, you will have a dealer login allowing you to see dealer pricing. Not all products are available for dealer pricing. Please inquire direct to Evan_Chapkis@rcaccessory.com for information on these products. RC Accessory, Inc does not supply free shipping to dealers. When an order is placed, you will need to select the appropriate method of shipping from the selections. These include Fed Ex, UPS, and US Postal Service. If you prefer to have your own shipper billed, please include your carrier, carrier billing account number, and method of shipping in the Special Instructions section at check out. We will not ship or bill any carriers other than Fed Ex or UPS. Carriers such as DHL, we do not ship through. RC Accessory, Inc. also limits the countries outside the US that we will ship to for end user sales or dealer sales. All dealer shipments are FOB Origin. Insurance of the shipment is in most cases included in the Fed Ex or UPS shipments. Also in most cases the additional levels of insurance are also included, but not always and depending on the carrier and the country destination.

MAP pricing is in effect for certain product lines not limited to Bantam e-Station products. You agree to adhere to all manufacturers MAP pricing models. Please inquire regarding MAP policy.
